REFORM ELEMENT STRENGTHENED BY HENEY SHOOTING

More Determined Than Ever to Prosecute and Punish Grifters.

San Francisco Shocked by Court Room Crime.

DISCARDED JURYMAN'S DEED

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—Probing showed that the bullet touched Henev's brain but lodged under his ear. Henev is resting easy and doctors are confident of his recovery. Henev's spirits are unbroken and he declared he will live to prosecute them and that his would-be slayer.

The attack on Henev has given great impetus to the prosecution of alleged grafters. The reform element predicts the attack will result in the grafters' conviction whether Henev lives or dies.

District Attorney Langdon has issued an appeal to the public to keep order and promised that graft prosecutions will continue and he will immediately prosecute them.

Feeling against Henev and Root is so bitter that the jail is heavily guarded. Many lynchings threats, but the authorities believe violence will be avoided. People generally believe the shooting was part of a political plot, although Henev denies having accomplices. A mass meeting tonight will consider the situation. Henev Johnson and Matt Sullivan, leading attorneys, volunteered to continue the Henev prosecution. Doctors decided to remove the bullet this afternoon. Blood poisoning is the greatest danger.

President Wires. Washington, Nov. 14.—President Roosevelt telegraphed Mrs. Henev and Randolph Spivey, who financed the graft prosecutions, expressing his horror and sympathy.

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—Francis J. Henev, a leading figure in the prosecution of municipal corruption in this city, was shot and seriously injured today by Morris Henev, a saloon keeper, who had been accepted as a juror in a previous trial and afterwards removed. It having been shown by the prosecution that he was an ex-convict, a fact not brought out in his examination as a juror, in Superior Judge Lawler's court room during a recess in the trial of Abraham Henev, on trial for a third time on a charge of bribery.

At 6 o'clock last night Henev was conscious. He said: "I will live to prosecute him."

Physicians in attendance on Henev expressed the opinion that he would live. It has been ascertained that the bullet which had entered the right cheek and lodged under the left ear and had not entered the brain as at first feared. Henev was taken to the hospital.

The shooting occurred at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Judge Lawler had a few minutes before declared a three minutes' recess of the court and the jury had left the room. The attorneys for the prosecution and the defense had returned to the room for a short conference with Judge Lawler in his chamber.

Henev was in his customary seat conversing with Chief Clerk McCabe of the district attorney's office, when Henev came forward. He approached Henev and placing the revolver against his right cheek fired.

Instantly the court room was a scene of the greatest excitement. Some bystanders seized Henev and others hastened to the relief of Henev, who was caught as he fell forward, the blood streaming from his wound.

Medical aid was summoned and Henev was afterwards taken to the Central Emergency hospital, where it was ascertained that his wound was not necessarily fatal. The bullet had passed under the brain and was found to be under the left ear.

After Henev had been removed from the court room Judge Lawler called the court to order and had Henev placed in custody. When arrested Henev said that he shot Henev because he had ruined him. He is a married man and has four children. In a statement made to Police Captain Duke, he said:

"Henev denounced me in public with my life and branded me as an ex-convict. It was an outrage. I am the wrong man. I do not care what becomes of me now. I have sacrificed myself, not for my own honor."

The Burley Association is Offered Thirteen Dollars For Its Crops of 1906 and 1907 by Tobacco Trust

Organization is Now Considering Proposition and Will Make Reply at Conference in Louisville Next Week.

Louisville, Nov. 14.—(Special.) The Burley Tobacco association has been offered $13 for the 1906 and 1907 crop of tobacco in the pool. The offer is now being considered by the association. Next week there will be a conference here and the decision will be known. The tobacco trust offers 32 cents for the crop of 1906, amounting to 12,000,000 pounds, and 16 cents for the 1907 crop of 60,000,000 pounds. The offer was made at the meeting between Clarence Lebus and R. K. Smith.

EXAMINATION HELD NEXT WEEK FOR MAIL CARRIER.

Next Wednesday the annual examination for selecting men eligible to serve as mail carriers will be held at the postoffice. Already there are 17 men who passed the examination and are ready to take a place which their term comes. Despite this fact there are ten applications in to take the examination.

Settling Raid Cases

Attorneys T. N. Hazell and Cecil Reed went to Gilbertsville this morning to meet representatives of the defendants in the three suits filed against them for the raid on Birmingham. The terms of the compromise were agreed upon Wednesday, but this morning the attorneys went to Gilbertsville to make the settlement.

BANK CLEARINGS SHOW CONDITION OF RETAIL TRADE

Bank clearings, $800,321.

Better business was shown this week than last in the bank clearings, which may be attributed to the weather man. The chilling breeze was a stimulant for business, particularly to the clothing dealers, and the merchants dealing in heavy fabrics.

The change is a welcome one to the dealers, for the shelves have been groaning under the weight during the warm days. The weather has brought some farmers to the city, as the farm work is about over, and the farmer is making his purchases for the winter.

Christmas is about six weeks off, but already the merchants have prepared for the annual visit of Kris Kringle. The toys and fancy articles have not been displayed yet, but everything is ready to be moved on display. Thanksgiving Day will cause trade to pick up somewhat, particularly to the produce dealers and the grocers. Plenty of turkeys have been promised with the average price going.

During the past week the lumber trade has picked up. No immediate cause is assigned, but several dums and dwellings are going up or will be under construction in a short time. Repair work has kept the carpenters from being idle altogether.

In the tobacco line the market has been quiet, although there has been some movement in the old pool. The weather is still unfavorable for the handling of the weed.

Because the term of former Councilman David Flournoy, to which Councilman Cornelson was appointed when Mr. Flournoy resigned, expires January 1, Councilman Cornelson will hold until that time, instead of surrendering his place to the successful aspirant to the seat in that ward at the general election. When a candidate is elected to fill a vacancy he takes his seat as soon as he qualifies; but no one was nominated to fill out Flournoy's unexpired term. The office is in the second ward and Pat Lally was elected councilman to succeed Flournoy. He could not be elected to two terms at once and the regular term does not begin until January 1.

However, yesterday Democratic politicians appeared before the election commissioners, who had already issued a certificate to Mr. Lally for the full term, commencing January 1, and declared that voters in the court house precincts had marked on the Australian ballots at Lally's name, "short term," something to which the officer of the election did not certify.

W. A. Berry represented the petitioners. No action was taken. The unexpired term of David Flournoy and the succeeding term constitute two separate offices or else one man's election to both of them at the same time would be an election for a term longer than the law provides.

ONE HELD AND TWO DISMISSED FROM ROBBERY CHARGE

Sensational Hold-Up of Negro on Freight Train Heard by Magistrate.

Victim's Identification is Not Sustained.

LAWS PRODUCES HIS ALIBI

Most of the blame for the holdup and robbery of John Smith, colored, on a freight train near Krebs on November 6 was placed on two unknown alleged special agents of the railroad yesterday afternoon when the case was tried before Magistrate J. J. Welch. James York, the negro brakeman, was held over to the grand jury on a charge of robbery and malicious shooting and John Sweeney, the flagman, and George Laws was dismissed.

John Smith said he recognized Laws, Sweeney and York as the men who robbed him of half a gallon of whisky and $15 in money, and they told him to jump off the train, reinforcing their demands with pistols. One bullet struck a book in Smith's pocket. R. L. Carter, marshal of Fulton, and Ed Ghossein, the railroad watchman at Fulton, told of arresting Sweeney and York at Fulton. York was drunk and Sweeney was drinking, the officers testified.

Laws was introduced and swore he was not out that night, and had witnesses to corroborate his story, so he was dismissed. Sweeney denied the charge and he was also dismissed. York denied robbing or shooting Smith, but Magistrate Welch held him over.

ALL THEIR DUCKS GOT AWAY FROM TWO HUNTERS.

It was an expensive hunt for John Davis and Engineer William Bush yesterday afternoon when they left the wharf for a trip up the Ohio river on a duck hunt. The birds were near Princeton and shot one duck, but it got away from them. After two hours' tramping through the woods the hunters returned to their boat and started to return, but the engine refused to work. Then the boat had to be towed back and the hunters had to foot the bill without a duck as the result of their hunt. They told their friends that they shot 75 ducks, but all of them got away.

Alexis Dies

Paris, Nov. 14.—Grand Duke Alexis, uncle of the Russian czar, died today.

KAISER OPPOSED TO WHOLE NATION IN HIS ATTITUDE

Berlin, Nov. 14.—A crisis in German affairs is imminent. The Kaiser is determined to resist the Reichstag's demands to restrict his political activity and his role as a monarch. The emperor's stand is opposed to the whole nation and a climax will be reached where the nation or the ruler must back down. Below will interview the Kaiser Monday and is expected to resign. The federal council, the highest body in the empire, also is demanding guarantees that the Kaiser will restrain his activity, which complicates the situation.

Three Indicted

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 14.—The grand jury of Davidson county this afternoon about 2 o'clock, returned an indictment against Col. Duncan H. Cooper, Robin Cooper and ex-Sheriff John D. Sharp, charging them jointly with the murder of ex-Senator E. W. Carmack. Mr. Sharp is also charged with being accessory before the fact.

EFFORT MADE TO HAVE COUNCILMAN-ELECT PAT LALLY INSTALLED AT ONCE

Because the term of former Councilman David Flournoy, to which Councilman Cornelson was appointed when Mr. Flournoy resigned, expires January 1, Councilman Cornelson will hold until that time, instead of surrendering his place to the successful aspirant to the seat in that ward at the general election. When a candidate is elected to fill a vacancy he takes his seat as soon as he qualifies; but no one was nominated to fill out Flournoy's unexpired term. The office is in the second ward and Pat Lally was elected councilman to succeed Flournoy. He could not be elected to two terms at once and the regular term does not begin until January 1.

It is Officially Announced That Chinese Emperor is Dead--None Know Outside Palace When Died

Story of Weakling Who Sat Upon Throne of Manchus But Did Not Rule--Waiting to Establish New Regime.

THE DEAD EMPEROR.

Peking, Nov. 14.—It is officially announced that the emperor is dead. It is believed to have occurred Tuesday night, but this is not confirmed. The emperor died at the age of 34. He became of age and assumed nominal charge of the government in March, 1887. Two years later the emperor married the niece of the dowager empress.

Kuang Hsu, Kwangsun, succeeded to the throne in 1875 upon the death of Tzang Ching.

He became of age and assumed nominal charge of the government in March, 1887. Two years later the emperor married the niece of the dowager empress. Nine years then passed without a change of the government. In 1895, after the seizure of Kiaochow by Germany, he threatened to abdicate if not given full power. The dowager empress made a pretense of turning over the government to him and four he was and near as he ever has been to being the actual ruler of his empire. During this period a number of reform edicts were issued from the palace and it was evident that plans were under way for the westernizing of both the government and court. In September of 1898 the dowager empress decided to end his activity. She suddenly confronted the emperor, denounced him, took from him the seal of state and put him under guard.

The emperor's reform friends were pursued with fury by the dowager empress, who executed six of them. In taking September 23, January 29, 1899, the emperor was forced to sign a decree announcing his own abdication and he was kept a prisoner by the dowager empress two years. It was believed that he had been killed. The powers made representation on the subject of his health which resulted in his being examined by a French physician attached to the foreign legation.

Emperor Took a Hand. Nothing was then heard of the emperor until the "boxer" uprising and the siege of the foreign legations at Peking. He is credited with having interfered with the dowager empress to try and prevent the carrying out of the declaration "to fight all foreign nations on the ground of war against all countries which would make peace an impossibility in the future."

On the day of the relief of the legation, April 15, the emperor fled with the rest of the court to Shan-Pu. He returned to Peking with the court January 7, 1907.

Booke the Furniture. Kaung-Hsu's court duties were distinctly perfunctory and routine. They consisted of appearing at all formal audiences to natives and foreigners, at the sittings of the grand council and at certain specified religious functions. In the throne room he sat on a stool or chair beside the throne, the chair of the dowager empress and papers were passed to him after being inspected by the dowager empress. It was related that on one occasion the presence of the emperor bored the dowager empress and she, in a temper, called to an attendant "take that away" referring to the emperor. His majesty overheard this characterization and when he reached his room began snatching the bric-a-brac in his rage.

Balloons Race

Los Angeles, Nov. 14.—Balloons, United States and American will start tomorrow to race to reach the Atlantic coast. They hope to establish a record of 70 hours. Horace Wild, of Chicago, is pilot of the United States, and Capt. Mueller pilot of the American. Mueller plans to sail toward Mexico across the gulf to Florida and skirt the coast. Wild hopes to follow a course over Canada. Balloons are each of 80,000 pounds capacity.

De Sagan Troubles

Rome, Nov. 14.—It is reported that Princess Sagan, formerly Anna Gould, is ready to leave the prince. Friends say Anna twice prepared divorce papers but was induced by the family to withhold filing.

Prizing Contracts

The executive committee for the Planters' Protective association in McCracken county have let contracts to C. R. Hall, Graham & Veal and M. M. Tucker to prize tobacco next year. Duke Sanderson has also applied for a contract which will doubtless be granted. There were only two prizes in the county last year.

One hundred and sixty hogheads of association tobacco were sold during this week at the Paducah sale room, the prices ranging from 7 to 11 cents. All Paducah brokers were represented in the purchases.

BROADWAY FAILS TO GET MEMPHIS CONFERENCE 1909

Greenfield, Tenn., Wins Honor of Entertaining Methodist Gathering.

Day's Proceedings Held at Covington, Tenn.

SESSION ABOUT CONCLUDED

Covington, Tenn., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—Broadway church, of Paducah, failed to win the fight for the honor of entertaining the Memphis conference next year. Greenfield, Tenn., made a successful bid last evening.

The sermon preached yesterday afternoon by the Rev. G. T. Sullivan was one of the best heard at the conference.

During the discussion of the Carmack resolutions, Bishop Hoss said: With reference to Senator Carmack, Bishop Hoss addressed the conference and spoke of his close and intimate relations with Senator Carmack, whom he lauded in the highest terms. He said he talked with him a short time before his tragic death, and spoke of his serenity of mind even under his recent defeat. Bishop Hoss said in substance that the editorials which are a record to have been the cause of Senator Carmack's murder in no sense justified him as a crime; that if they did, then his (the bishop's) murder would be justified. He said a negro plowing behind a horse in the Mississippi bottom was as much entitled to the protection of the law as to his life and liberty as the highest in the land. He said the conference as a body had a right to express themselves. He denounced in the strongest terms the commission of deeds actuated by private revenge. Bishop Hoss declared that Senator Carmack was not slain on account of what he had said, but because of fear of what he might have said in the future. He spoke of the majesty of the law and of the absolute necessity for its rigid enforcement, as was evidenced by the prevalence of lawlessness in the country.

The conference adopted strong resolutions in favor of state-wide prohibition in Tennessee and urgently call on the Tennessee legislature to extend the Pendleton law or enact other legislation as will drive the liquor traffic from the state and pledge the members of the conference individually and collectively, by voice and vote, to use every legitimate means to secure that end.

The resolutions urge the Kentucky legislature to extend the county unit law to cities of all classes and thus drive the liquor traffic out of the state from the municipal breastworks, behind which it hides, and thus "let the people rule."

The Anti-Saloon League and W. C. T. U. are warmly commended and all preachers are urged to preach a strong temperance sermon at least once a year.

Cabinet Change

Washington, Nov. 14.—Secretary of the Navy Victor H. Metcalf tendered his resignation to the president to take effect December 1, on account of ill health. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Truman Newberry will be named as Mr. Metcalf's successor.

Candidates Are Seeking Office At City's Hand

Already the councilmen and aldermen have been busy listening to the appeals of candidates for the various city offices that will be filled by the two boards next month. For the position of house inspector it is expected generally that R. B. Hicks, the incumbent, has a walkover as the Democratic officials have pushed back all other aspirants. Marketmaster is foregone with the following Democratic candidates: R. M. Miles, Albert Senger, Don Martin and C. E. Bridgely. It is understood that some of the candidates for marketmaster would be willing to accept the city weigher's job, and Billy Orr and Al Townsend are candidates. A Franko will be a candidate for sewer inspector, although it is understood that Jack Wilson may be an applicant.

Dr. W. J. Hoss is mentioned as the favorite man for city physician, although it is said that Dr. Criss and Dr. Kidd will be applicants. For sanitary officer John Galtner is the only Democratic candidate spoken of.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday with light rain or snow flurries east portion, not much change in temperature. Highest temperature yesterday, 50; lowest today, 28.

The Week In Society.

PIGRIMS ALL.

Just a little laughter,
Just a little woe,
Just a flash of summertime
Till the roads go,
Just a little handclasp;
That's the toll you pay
If you go a-traveling
The Heart's Highway.

Through the sunny weather,
Under cloudless skies,
Oh, how fair the road lies!
Oh, how bright her eyes!
Sure there's not a danger
Could your soul deny
When you start a-traveling
The Heart's Highway.

Nay, but not forever
Is the sun at noon;
Crawling shadows gather
Far too swift and soon;
Hold her hand the tighter
When the dews grow gray;
Only that brings morning on
The Heart's Highway!

The entire house was beautifully decorated in yellow chrysanthemums, southern snailx and ferns. At the diagonal corners were tall gold bronze candle sticks. Cut glass napies held yellow mints. Across one side and corner of the table, giant yellow chrysanthemums were artistically laid. The yellow color scheme was further carried out in the chrysanthemums scattered on the mantel, curtains and sideboard in profusion. Mrs. Harry Hinkle, Mrs. Robert Mac-Millon and Miss Margaret Park served delicious refreshments to the many guests. In the coffee room, hung with the same beautiful flowers, Mrs. Victor Voris and Mrs. Henry Rudy poured coffee.

GERMS IN HER SYSTEM.

Every Woman Should Read This.

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mere mention of their names, and it is a fact that most of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman cannot be well if there is a trace of the catarrhal germs in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we offer to supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction or does not substantiate our claims. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to believe our honesty of purpose, or hesitate to put our claims to a test.

There is only one way to cure Catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches or like remedies for years without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh is caused by a germ. That germ is carried by the blood to the innermost part of the system until the mucous membrane is broken, irritation and inflammation produced, and a flow of mucous results, and you can probably realize how silly it is to attempt to cure such an ailment unless you take a medicine that follows the same course as the germ or parasite.

Hexall Men-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years made his specialty Catarrh, and with this medicine he averaged 98 per cent of cures where it was employed. No other remedy is so properly designed for the ailments of women. It will purify and enrich the blood, stop mucous discharge, destroy all germ matter, remove all impurities from the system, soothe, heal and strengthen the mucous tissues, and bring a good feeling of health and strength.

We want to try Hexall Men-Tone on your guarantee. If you are not benefited, or for any reason not satisfied, simply tell us and we will hand back your money. Hexall Men-Tone comes in two sizes, 50c and $1.00. W. B. McPherson, Paducah.

Mrs. Covington wore a handsome gown of spangled net over paste green liberty satin trimmed in rose point with a touch of pink velvet.

Miss Winstead wore an empire gown of pink messaline satin enriched with pink embroidery and gold lace.

Miss Cockrell was very dainty in a gown of white liberty satin and lace. Miss Haddock was gowned in light blue poupatour crepe de chine embellished with lace.

Mrs. Gus Covington, of Mayfield, was very handsome in a pink silk crepe with lace and net trimmings.

Sauerberg-Bray Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Mary Louise Sauerberg, of this city, to Mr. Parker Bray of Cairo, Ill., will be solemnized on Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the parsonage of the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church. The Rev. Father H. W. Jansen will perform the ceremony. There will be no attendants and only relatives and most intimate friends will be present. The bride will wear a pretty traveling suit of bronze-green. Immediately after the ceremony the couple will leave for St. Louis, Chicago and other points and will be at home at 915 Walnut street, Cairo, after December 1.

Miss Sauerberg is the daughter of Mr. John Sauerberg, 932 South Tenth street, and is an attractive and gracious young woman. Mr. Bray is connected with the Scudder-Stiles-Wearon Wholesale Grocery company of Cairo and is a popular young man.

Virginia Wedding of Interest Here.

The wedding of Mr. Richard Walker, formerly of Paducah but more recently of Fountella, Va., to Miss Katherine Taylor, of Coleman's Falls, Va., took place on Tuesday at high noon at the Cove Methodist church, Coleman's Falls. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Pizer. The church was effectively decorated with evergreens. It was a pretty ceremony.

Miss Evelyn Walker, of Dyersburg, Tenn., sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor and Mr. Wiley Atkins, of Dyersburg, was the best man. The bridesmaids were: Miss Ean Harris, of Dyersburg, Tenn.; Miss Virginia Taylor, of Virginia; Miss Flora Williams, of Virginia. The groomsmen were: Col. William Brodie, of Blacksburg, Va.; Mr. Guy Davis and Mr. Edgar Watts, both of Coleman's Falls.

The bride was gowned in white Japanese silk over white taffeta. She wore the bridal veil and carried white chrysanthemums. The maids were in white, also, and their flower was white chrysanthemum. The bride entered with her father.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Taylor home after the ceremony and that afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Walker and the Misses Walker left over the Southern for Dyersburg, Tenn., stopping at Asheville, Knoxville, Chattanooga and Memphis en route. They arrived in Dyersburg today and will visit the Misses Walker for awhile. Before returning to Virginia they will come to Paducah for a visit. Mr. Walker has a host of friends here and is the senior member of the prominent drug firm H. W. Walker & Co., of Paducah.

New Social Club Organized.

The Gackenhelm club was organized this week for social pleasure during the winter, by a number of the young men. A series of dances will be given on the second and fourth Monday nights. The club officers are Mr. Charles Mercer and Mr. G. T. McKinley.

Miss Foster's Novel Party.

Miss Allie D. Foster entertained her classmates of the B Senior class Friday evening at her home in the South flats, on South Fifth street, in a delightful way with a play in five acts. The programs had pen and ink sketches of college girls on the back. The first act was "Musie Hath 'Barns to Sooth the Savage Beast." This was carried out with songs. The second act was:

"Oh had some power the giftle gie me."

To see ourselves as others see us."

This was represented by the guests drawing pictures of each other and writing descriptions.

The third act was "Theby Hanzas a Tale." In this stories were told. The fourth act was "Eat, Drink and Be Merry." At this time refreshments were introduced and the net was carried out in every particular.

The fifth and last act was "As You Like It." Then the guests amused themselves as they pleased.

Another feature of the evening was a gypsy fortune teller, who occu-

Alumni Association.

The Alumni association of the Paducah High school met Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Washington school auditorium. The program was an attractive one, under the direction of the literary department of the association. An interesting paper on "Poets of the South" was read by Miss Effie Murray. A delightful reading from Father Ryan's poems was given by Miss Anna Larkin. "Prose Writers in the South" was the subject of a splendid paper by Mrs. E. G. Boone. A reading from southern prose writers was charmingly given by Miss Catherine Thomas.

Missionary Tea.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Grace Episcopal church held its Missionary Tea for November at the parish house Friday afternoon. Mrs.

Sallie Morrow was hostess. Miss Alice Compton told most delightfully of the "Pan-Anglican Conference" which she attended last June in London. Miss Nash reported current events in missionary history. Light refreshments were served.

SOCIAL OCCASIONS.

Mrs. Lucie Robison Ford, 313 North Ninth street, was the hostess of an attractive arranged card party on Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. James Calhoun Riecke, a recent bride. The color-motif was white and green, the decorations of the house and the delightful course-luncheon prettily emphasizing the effect. The first prize, a bon bon spoon, was won by Mrs. Lillard Sanders. The second prize, a gold hat pin, set with turquoise, was won by Miss Hattie Terrell in concert with Mrs. Victor Voris and Mrs. Lawrence Delham.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed D. Hannan, of Fifth and Harrison streets, entertained on Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Thomas Hannan, of Louisville, the mother of Mr. Hannan.

Sophy of Kravonia

by ANTHONY HOPE

Author of "The Prisoner of Zenda"

Copyright, 1908, Anthony Hope Hawkins

In vain will the readers of this late of romantic love and brilliant during search the maps of the world for the picturesque land of Kravonia, wherein lovely, fascinating

Sophy and her mysterious Red Star played their parts. This much we may tell him before he embarks on his voyage to Kravonia. But we may assure him that when he reluctantly parts with Sophy, sometime scullery maid of Morpingham, Essex,

England, later spiritualistic medium of Paris, France,

and still later of high rank in Slavonia and Volseni, in Kravonia, the country of her adoption will be to him, like Zenda and Graustark,

more real than any of the smaller, actual kingdoms of the earth. Sad and tragic in some of its aspects is the love story of Sophy of Kravonia, but its pathos is so lightened by devoted loyalty, hardy bravery and tender,

self-sacrificing affection that at the end the reader will feel its telling has not been unworthy of the master hand of its famous chronicler.

Chapter One

GROUCH! That is the name, and in the interest of euphony it is impossible not to regret the fact. Some say it should be spelled "Grouch," which would not at all improve matters, though it makes the pronunciation clear beyond doubt—the word must rhyme with "couch" and "couch."

Well, night Lady God! I don't know what she had overheard in her life! Sophy was not of a very different opinion, as will be shown by and by. She was grouch on both sides—unloved and unloving—for

Enoch Grouch married his uncle's daughter

Sally and named his first child Sophy. Two other children were born to him, but they died in early infancy. Mrs. Grouch did not long survive the death of her little ones. She was herself dead in Morpingham churchyard

when Sophy was no more than five years old.

The child was left to the sole care of her father, a man who had married late for his class—indeed, late for any class—and was already well on in middle age. He held a very small farm, lying about half a mile behind the church. Probably he made a hard living of it, for the only servant in his household was a girl of fifteen, who had presumably both to cook and scrub for him and to look after the infant Sophy. Nothing was remembered of him in Morpingham.

Perhaps there was nothing to remember—

nothing that marked him off from thousands like him. Perhaps the story of his death, which lives in the village traditions, blotting out

the inconspicuous record of his inebrious life.

Morpingham lies within twenty-five miles of London, but for all that it is a sequestered and primitive village. It contained, at this time at least, but three houses with pretensions to gentility—the hall, the rectory and a smaller house

across the village street, facing the rectory.

At the end of the street stood the hall in its grounds. This was a handsome red brick house set in a spacious garden. Along one side of the garden there ran a deep ditch,

and on the other side of the ditch, between

it and a large meadow, was a path which led to the church. Thus the church stood behind the hall, and again, as has been said, beyond the church was Enoch Grouch's moorland farm, held by Mr. Brownlow, the owner of the hall. The church path was the favorite resort of the villagers, and deservedly, for it was shaded and beautified by a fine double row of old elms, forming a stately avenue to the humble little house of worship.

On an autumn evening in the year

1855 Enoch Grouch was returning from the village, where he had been to buy tobacco.

His little girl was with him. It was wild weather. A gate had been blowing for full twenty-four hours, and in the previous night

a mighty gale had been sweeping from one of the great elms and had fallen with a crash. It lay now right across the path. As they went to the village her father had indulged Sophy with a ride on the lough and she begged in renewal of the iron on their homeward journey. The farmer was a kind man—more kind than wise, as it proved, on this occasion. He let the child stride on the thick end of the lough, then went to the other end, which was much steeper. Probably his object was to shake the lough and please his little tyrant with the imitation of a rattle. The fallen lough suggested no danger to his loving mother's mind. He leaned down toward the lough, with outstretched hands,

Sophy no doubt watching his doings with excited interest, while the wind raged and revealed a great tree trunk, over their Grouch's body was taken into the hall. Mrs. Brownlow followed the procession, Sophy still in her arms.

At the end of the avenue she spoke to the boy and girl:

"Go home, Basil. Tell your father, and ask him to come to the hall. Good night, Julia. Tell your mother, and don't cry any more. The poor man is with tired, and I shan't let this come to harm." She was a childless woman, with a motherly heart, and as she spoke she kissed Sophy's wounded forehead. Then she went into the hall grounds, and the boy and girl were left together on the road. Basil shook his head at the avenue of elms, his favorite playground.

"Hush those beastly trees!" he cried.

"I'd cut them all down if I was Mr.

Brownlow."

"I must go and tell mother," said

Julia, "and you'd better go too."

"Yes," he assented, but lingered for a moment, still looking at the trees as though reluctantly fascinated by them.

"Mother always said something would happen to that little girl," said

Julia, with a grave and important look

in her eyes.

"Why?" the boy asked brusquely.

"Because of that mark—that mark

she's got on her cheek."

"What mark?" he said, but he looked at his companion intently. The event

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is in reality an internal inflammation—a diseased condition of the blood cells which supply the nourishment and strength necessary to sustain our bodies. Uric acid, an irritating, inflammatory accumulation, gets into the circulation because of physical irregularities, and then instead of nourishing and invigorating the body, the blood irritates and inflames the different nerves, tissues, muscles and joints, because of its impure, acid condition. The pains and aches and other disagreeable and dangerous symptoms of Rheumatism can never be permanently cured until every particle of the cause is driven from the blood. S. S. S. does this because it is a perfect blood purifier. It goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, purifies and cleanses the circulation, invigorates the blood, and completely drives Rheumatism from the system. Plasters, liniments, soothing lotions, etc., may be used for the temporary relief and comfort they bring, but a cure cannot be effected until S. S. S. has removed the cause. It frees the blood of every impurity and makes it a rich, health sustaining fluid, to bring permanent relief and comfort to those who suffer with Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

READY FOR DEFENSE

VENEZUELA PREPARED TO RESIST AN ATTACK.

Castro in Such Delicate Health As to Cause Anxieties to His Friends.

Caracas, Nov. 14.—With the placing in position last week of mountain artillery at various strategic positions about Lagunayra so as to prevent any attempted landing from Holland's warships if they come to Venezuela with hostile intent, President Castro has now completed his preparations for the defense of Venezuela's principal seaport and gateway to Caracas.

Not only have the Venezuelan army and navy made preparations for a blockade, but also the merchants of both Lagunayra and Caracas. Yesterday all of the salt in Lagunayra was purchased by a prominent politician and the entire stock of a flour mill was acquired by influential interests. Usually large importations of rice and other provisions have been received from Europe by the principal importers, who instructed their European connections to make heavy shipments if they were convinced, after making investigations, that Holland meant business.

The merchants of Lagunayra received their greatest shock which at the same time confirmed their belief that affairs were coming to a crisis when on Wednesday the collector of customs issued an order to the merchants that in the first, the date set by the Netherlands government for the revocation of Castro's transshipment decrees they would be compelled to remove all their merchandise from the customhouse and pay all the duties by that date. Stagnation in all kind of trade has been the result of the present uncertainty and great losses will develop during the period of expectancy.

While the army, navy and the merchants were making their final preparations yesterday for the descent of the Dutch warships Baron Von Seekerdt, the German minister who is in charge of the interests of Holland, was entertaining Venezuela's minister for foreign affairs, Dr. Paul and his wife and daughter. The location was beautiful, decorated and a small dance followed the dinner.

Meanwhile President Castro is in such delicate health as to cause apprehension to his friends and physicians.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women or received so many genuine testimonials as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every one you meet has either been benefited by it, or has friends who have.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., any woman any day may see the files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, and here are the letters in which they openly state over their own signatures that they were cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made from roots and herbs, without drugs, and is wholesome and harmless.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the feminine organism, restoring it to a healthy normal condition.

Women who are suffering from those distressing and peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS

And you will generally find that they know of more good, intelligent people, those of good sense and discernment in your vicinity who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's World-famed Family Medicines than by all other proprietary medicines. They have been making these cures right along for over forty years and altogether likely you will easily find people all about you who will be only too glad to say a good word for them. These old reliable curatives are not exploited or urged upon the afflicted by extravagant and false promises but have a record of real, genuine cures to sustain them.

Among women Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is truly a favorite by reason of its remarkable cures which, for over forty years by far exceed those which can be credited to any medicine extant. By a little inquiry you will no doubt find some of these cured and grateful cases in your immediate neighborhood, for they are to be met with practically EVERYWHERE. They are Dr. Pierce's best advertisements. Seek their advice if you are a poor despondent over-burdened broken down, weak, or pain-wracked woman, suffering from some derangement or weakness incident to your sex.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser in plain English, by R. V. Pierce, M. D., (new fully revised up-to-date edition) gives all particulars which women need to know about their peculiar functions and how to correct ordinary derangements and weaknesses. Cloth-bound volume of 1000 pages, 31 ancient stamps, or in paper covers for 21 cents, post-paid. Why not send for it NOW? The New Edition is almost a household necessity. The Father of his Country concealed a luxuriant suit of hair beneath his queue wig. Many now with the old fashion were in vogue, to conceal thinned hair or baldness. Yet no one need have thin hair nor be bald, if he cure the dandruff that causes both. Dandruff can not be cured by washing the scalp, because it is a skin disease, and the germs have to be killed. Newb's Hairdressing is the dandruff germ-killer. It is a hair preparation on which the cause, and remove the effect. There is no cure for dandruff but to kill the germ. Sold by leading druggists. EDUCATIONAL WORK

TO BE UNDERTAKEN BY DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY.

Veteran Who Gave His Cross of Honor to a Federal Soldier Deserved by Convention.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 14.—Education was the keynote of the sessions of the fifteenth annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, inspired by a message from Mrs. Goddell, of Nashville, founder of the U. D. C., urging the necessity of wiping out illiteracy in the south. Members of the convention acclaimed in brief but earnest addresses, that no more patriotic work could be done by the Daughters of the Confederacy than to use their every energy for the educational advancement of the descendants of those soldiers whose noble deeds the organization seeks to commemorate.

Miss Alice Baxter, president of the Georgia division of the U. D. C., proudly announced that Georgia had taken the initiative in the work of education, referring to the Winifred Davis dormitory at the State Normal school, Athens, Ga., which was erected by the Georgia daughters. She also directed attention to the fact that the Georgia division is now building a dormitory at the Rabun Gap Industrial school, Rabun Gap, Ga., as a fitting memorial to Gen. Francis Hartow.

A resolution was introduced by Mrs. John King Outley, of Atlanta, providing for the creation of an educational committee of the United Daughters of the Confederacy which shall render a report annually covering all educational work being done by the several state divisions. She believed that this would stimulate further effort on the part of the different divisions toward placing educational advantages within the reach of every descendant of a Confederate.

The fact was brought to the attention of the convention that a Confederate soldier had given his cross of honor to a federal general and this precipitated considerable discussion, the veteran being severely criticized. The chairman of the delegation representing the division which gave the cross to the Confederate veteran expressed deep regret over the incident. She declared "that the veteran who so decorated his badge of honor as to give it over to the enemy" was eligible as a recipient at the time it was bestowed upon him. Efforts will be made to recover the cross from the federal officer.

An hour was devoted to memorial exercises and a reception was tendered the delegates in the evening.

BOTH CONFIDENT

CURAN ELECTIONS PROMISE TO BE VERY CLOSE.

Liberals Appear to Have Slightly Best Chance to Win the Presidency.

Havana, Nov. 14.—At the close of the presidential campaign, which ended last night with a great conservative demonstration in Havana, the Conservative and Liberal leaders express themselves with the utmost confidence as to the result. The election probably will be very close, but indications are rather favorable to the success of the Liberals. Much, however, depends upon the bringing out of the vote, which was not cast in the elections in August, when only 263,122 ballots were deposited, as compared with a registration of 451,677.

The Conservatives claim a greater portion of the silent vote of 182,000 alleging that their partisans were deterred by intimidation from going to the polls. While the Conservatives carried some of the provinces in the last elections by pluralities, they had no place a clear majority over the combined vote of the Mignolistas and Zayistas, running behind by a total vote of about 50,000.

A careful canvass made by the Havana Post gives the Liberals Pinar Del Rio, Havana and Oriente provinces, which would mean a total of sixly-two electoral votes, eight in excess of the number necessary for a choice. Santa Clara and Matanzas provinces are doubtful, while Matanzas is Conservative.

The Liberals claim all the provinces, while the Conservatives concede to them Havana, but claim Pinar Del Rio, Santa Clara, Camaguey and Oriente. There is little betting, but the odds slightly favor the Liberals.

ADVERTISED LANDS TO BE SOLD MONDAY

State Revenue Agent's Office
Open Tonight Till 9 O'clock.

For Convenience of Delinquents Mr.
Husbands Will Remain in His Office, 129 1/2 South Fourth.

SEE THE LIST IN TODAY'S PAPER

Today publication is made for the last time of the state delinquent list
and Monday State Revenue Agent's Husbands will make the sale of all unredeemed property, as directed by law.

It is said by those who are in position
to know that the number of delinquents paying up this time is greater than ever before and Revenue Agent Husbands is inclined to believe this true, judging from the amount of business he has done in the past thirty days.

It is the intention of the state authorities to clear the books absolutely of all back tax claims and it will therefore be well for those interested in property upon which state taxes are due to pay up before Mr. Husbands office closes this evening at 9 o'clock, for the law provides that all such lands shall be sold to the highest and best bidder and passes absolute title to the purchaser; no provision is made for redemption after sale.

Mr. Husbands' office is at 129 1/2 South Fourth street, upstairs, and his phone number is 789 old. He will be glad to give any information desired.

Hildreth, of Kuttawa, Referee Hag-
by issued orders for the sale of 141
acres of land belonging to Hildreth
in Lyon county, subject to the dower right of his mother in fifty acres, to Hagby issued an order directing him to show why he should not turn over the money secured from the sale.

by the court until another day.

that Referee Hagby order a sale of the estate. Judge Hagby ordered a notice posted, and if no objection to the sale is filed by November 27 for the trustee to sell the property on November 28.

Furniture company, filed a petition in bankruptcy court, asking that he Louisville, which is in liquidation.

The notice of the petition was given

but for the ones that are situated like myself. By God, I would not have brought my four children into the world to hear such a brand as to have known the fact that I was an

the reason I shot him."

Heney had finished the cross-examination at noon of James Gallagher,
his prosecution's most important witness in all the bribery graft cases and the self-confessed "go-between"
of Heney and the former board of supervisors.

Henry Ash, chief counsel for Heney
and subjected Gallagher to a severe cross-examination for two hours in the afternoon when Judge Lawler declared a brief recess at 4:05. Heney remained in the court room, and was eating over on his table conversing with Al McCabe, chief clerk in the district attorney's office. Directly in front of him was James L. Gallagher, the witness. A representative of the Thirty New Suits Came in Today

And They're Beauties too, at the Price

THIRTY new suits came in this morning. They are in black and green serge of a fancy weave. They are trimmed in satin buttons and folds, the coat having the pointed effects. The skirts having large satin buttons all the way down, with directoire effects on the sides. At $25.00 these garments would be great values; but at the price we offer them they are real live bargains.

And they're PRINCESS Garments, too.

Associated Press had just walked to Heney's table and was standing at his left elbow waiting to speak to him
when a small man, neatly attired, approached from behind with quick steps but with deliberation. Suddenly his right hand shot out and before the newspaper man, McCabe or John Foley, Heney's special body guard, sitting about eight feet away, could make a move, there was a flash and a loud report rang through the court room.

Panle Follows Shooting.

For a moment everybody seemed stunned and paralyzed. The would-be assassin whose revolver was within a foot and a half of Heney's head
when he pulled the trigger, stepping back, his arms by his side, one hand still clutching the smoking pistol as if he hesitated what to do. For a fraction of a second an impressive advice followed the report and a panic followed. Half of the people evidently fearing further shooting made a frantic rush for the doors. Before Haley could raise his pistol again,
Foley and E. J. Wiskotah, special policemen, were upon him, throw him to the floor and wrested the weapon from him. He struggled hard, but was dragged to the jury box, thrown on his back and held there, just as the jury, attracted by the shot, came bursting through their private entrance.

Heney arose out of his chair, put his hands to his head, the blood reddening the table in front of him leaped over a moment, and was caught as he began to fall. He was laid on the floor, Charles Oliver and John Foley, two special detectives connected with the district attorney's office, holding his head on of the pool of blood which flowed from a hole which appeared to be just below

the right temple. He was conscious and when the Associated Press representative stooped down by his side and spoke to him, his first words were: "Send for my wife."

Thought Wound Fatal.

Dr. H. A. Fincke, who was in the court room at the time, rushed to Heney's side, made a hasty examination and pronounced him fatally wounded.

Heney was perfectly composed.
He believed he was fatally hurt, and expressed a desire to make a dying statement. He said: "I was sitting at my table when I felt what I thought was a blow. I do not know who shot me. I was not doing anything to any one."

Ruef and his attorneys who were out on the sidewalk, were startled by the report and started for the court room, but were forced down
the steps by the crowd rushing frantically out, and the police refused to admit them. When told what had happened Heney demanded to know he did it, and immediately ordered his chauffeur to get the nearest physician.

The car returned in a few minutes with a physician. Heney was later taken in an ambulance to the emergency hospital, whence he was removed to the Lane hospital.

Large Crowd Gathered.

The report of the attempted assasination spread throughout the city
like wildfire and caused intense excitement and indignation. An immense crowd gathered around the court house. There was no hostile demonstration in the big crowd, but some threatening rumors began to be heard. Heney was surrounded by a large number of people and quietly slipped away. This led to the report that he had disappeared, but he soon after appeared in the court room and to safeguard his personal safety was taken into custody.

In the second Heney trial Haas had been passed as a juror when one day in court Heney dramatically produced a photograph of him taken at San Quentin penitentiary in a convict's garb and cropped head, and with his number across his breast.
Haas collapsed in court, admitted he had been a convict and was immediately discharged from the jury.

PEONAGE

PRACTICED IN FLORIDA, SAYS INDICTMENT.

Men Induced by False Promises Find Themselves Actual Slaves to Employers.

New York, Nov. 13.—What was asserted to be the practical peonage of 3,000 men in the wild regions of Florida and their detention there under hard labor for a period of several months was dealt with at length today before Judge Hough and a jury in the United States circuit court, in the course of the trial of the government's case against employers and agents of the Florida East Coast Railway company for alleged violation of the statute prohibiting "peonage, slavery and enforced servitude."

The men under indictment are Francesco Sabba, Edward J. Trlay, David E. Harley and Frank A. Hough.

After a jury had been selected, Deputy Attorney General Glenn E. Lusted outlined the prosecution's case, contending that the treatment accorded the workmen supplied to the Florida East Coast company by the defendants was nothing short of slavery. The government would show, he declared, that in 1905 the men had been induced by alluring advertisements to apply for employment in the south.

Everything went well, the attorney said, until the men reached Jersey City, where they were put aboard a train, the doors being locked on them and armed guards set over them to prevent their escape. Throughout the long journey they were given nothing but stale bread and bologna sausage, and when they reached the end of their journey they were refused and refused to leave the train, but a hose was turned on them, and in this manner the entire consignment of human freight had been driven aboard a waiting steamer.

When the ultimate destination was reached, said Mr. Lusted, the men found that the paradise that had been promised them was a barren wilderness, overrun with reptiles and venomous snakes, where no place to sleep had been provided for them. Their "high wages," the prosecutor declared, were slips of paper exchangeable at the company's store for shoes and clothing and food. The escape that many sought was impossible, as the region was entirely cut off from all means of communication with the outside world.

Thinking to be discharged, some refused to work. These, Mr. Lusted said, were threatened with death and brutally beaten. Finally some were able to smuggle letters through to relatives, and in this manner the government had been apprised of the conditions existing.

John B. Stauchfield, attorney for the Florida East Coast company, and personal counsel for Henry M. Flagler, the company's president and principal stockholder, moved that the indictments charging peonage and slavery be dismissed, as the one charge destroyed the other. Judge Hough was inclined to hold that the charge of peonage could not rest, but declared that he would rule in the matter on any point brought out during the presentation of the evidence.

THE NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.

The bureau of engraving and printing has completed designs suggested by Postmaster General Meyer for a new issue of United States postage stamps. The new stamps will be of the following denominations: One cent, two cents, three cents, four cents, five cents, six cents, eight cents, ten cents, fifteen cents, fifty cents and $1. The $2 and $5 denominations now in use will not be reprinted. It will be some weeks before all the denominations will be put on the market.

The two-cent stamp will be the first distributed, and it is expected that shipments to postmasters will begin some time in November. The new issue has been designed with the object of obtaining the greatest simplicity commensurate with artistic results. The profile has been taken in each instance instead of a full view, giving a barrel effect. All the stamps are of a similar design, containing a head in an ellipse, the only decoration being laurel leaves on either side of the ellipse. The lettering is in straight lines, at the top being "U. S. Postage" and at the bottom the words "Two cents."

The one-cent stamp contains the head of Franklin, while all the others will bear that of Washington, taken from busts by Moudon. The most notable difference in the new issue will be the minimum of lettering. The colors are the reds and blues of the early stamps. Director Ralph, of the bureau of engraving and printing, regards the new stamps as the most artistic ever issued by the government.—Washington Cor. New York Sun.
